DEFENDANT DEXIA CRÉDIT LOCAL 'S MOTION FOR LEAVE INSTANTER TO FILE MEMORANDUM OF LAW IN EXCESS OF 25 PAGES

Defendant Dexia Credit Local (“Dexia”), by its attorneys, moves this Court for the entry of an order granting it leave to file instanter a memorandum in excess of local page limitations in support of its Motion To Transfer Venue. In support of this motion, Dexia states as follows:

1. Northern District of Indiana Local Rule 7.1(d) provides that no brief shall exceed 25 pages without prior approval of the court.
2. Dexia has made every effort to stay within the required page limitation, but the long and complex history the proceedings involving Dexia, the United States and the Rogans, combined with the number of factual and legal issues addressed, required a comprehensive memorandum of law in excess of the 25-page limit.
3. Dexia’s Motion To Transfer Venue And Memorandum In Support only exceeds the page limitation by four pages, for a total of 29 pages.

WHEREFORE, for the foregoing reasons, Dexia respectfully requests that the Court grant this motion and enter an order granting Dexia leave to a memorandum in excess of local page limitations in support of its Motion To Transfer Venue.

Respectfully submitted,

Dated: November 18, 2007
